BERMUDA

Skipper Paula Lewin, 32, is from Warwick, Bermuda.

Her sister, Peta Lewin, also is 32.

Paula and her team will represent Bermuda at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens in the Yngling class. They are the 2002 and 2003 Bermuda Women's Match Racing Champions, and placed eighth in both the 2002 and 2003 Bermuda Gold Cup competition. They took second at last year's BoatUS Santa Maria Cup.

In 1999, Paula was ranked first in the world after a particularly successful season in 1998, in which she won the Santa Maria Cup, took fifth at the World Championships, and won both the Reed & Barton Cup and the Osprey Cup. She also has previously participated in the Olympics, taking 14th in the Europe Dinghy class at the 1996 Atlantic Games.

Team members say they are "50/50 on marriage, but 100% have dogs." They also say they all love Annapolis and are looking forward to being here again.
